KEYNOTE

HIGH-PERFORMANCE TEAMS

The science behind high-performing teams and the collaborative disciplines that drive results.

Break down silos and strengthen teamwork across departments. The practices that turn a set of silos into a cohesive team.

WHAT THE ROOM LEAVES WITH

01

Enhance speed to productivity

Build cross-functional teams that work faster together, cutting the time it takes new members and new efforts to be productive.

02

Unlock cross-functional accountability

Speed communication across the organization and set teams up to produce efficient, accountable results rather than handoffs.

03

Foster innovation through healthy debate

Encourage the constructive arguments that produce better ideas, and make it safe enough that people debate in healthy ways.

WHY IT LANDS

Some 96 percent of executives name poor communication and collaboration as the leading causes of workplace failures. This session is built on the research behind the bestselling book The Best Team Wins and is aimed at driving accountability and collaboration in fast-moving organizations.

WHO IT IS FOR

Cross-functional and matrixed organizations, leadership teams, and companies integrating after a merger or reorganization.

> "What an extremely engaging and motivating talk for our team and clients in Hong Kong. The content was tailored perfectly to our fast-paced and forever-changing needs."
